

PRESS RELEASE -LONG

Evansville Community Theatre proudly presents the C.S. Lewis' classic "The Lion The Witch And The Wardrobe". Adapted from the first book of The Chronicles of Narnia series, this story is known by children and adults of all ages.

Through the magic of theatre, we travel to Narnia through the old wardrobe with the four adventurous children, and are swept into their fantastic journey. As the children battle the forces of evil, they discover the deepest magic of all. With intense action and memorable characters, this story of love, faith, and courage will touch audiences of all ages.

Director David Sobeski's (recent director credits include "A Christmas Story" and "Little Shop of Horrors") has been involved with ECT for over 10 years as an actor, producer, and director. "I'm really proud of the cast and crew we've assembled for this year's summer production," says Sobeski. "Our actors include many familiar faces from Evansville as well as Stoughton, Janesville, and the Madison area. We are blessed to have such incredible talent in the immediate area!" Sobeski adds, "Set designer Scott Brummond and costume designer Melissa Schnepfer have done an incredible job of bringing this wonderful story to life."

Performances will be July 10, 11, and 17th at 7:30 p.m. and July 12th and 18th at 2p.m. at the Evansville High School Performing Arts Center, 640 South 5th Street, Evansville, WI.

Tickets and more information will be available through our website, www.ecttheater.com. Contact us through our Facebook page or e-mail us at evansvilleect@gmail.com.
