

Join the Theodore Robinson Society for an evening with Jonathan Wilde, award winning wildlife artist on Sunday evening, August 21, 2011 at 7 p.m. at Creekside Place, 102 Maple Street, Evansville, Wisconsin.

Jonathan's work is included in the permanent collection of the "Birds In Art" at the Leigh Yawkey Woodson Art Museum at Wausau, Wisconsin. He is an active environmentalist and has donated works to Ducks Unlimited, Ruffed Grouse Society, Prairie Chicken Society, National Audubon Society, Peregrine Society and the Wisconsin Society of Ornithology.

One of Jonathan Wilde's earliest works was preserved by the Theodore Robinson Society in 2009. A water color mural in the Theodore Robinson Intermediate School, created by Wilde while he was an Evansville High School student in 1964-65, was framed and covered with plexiglass.

Jonathan grew up in Evansville and has many loyal fans. Please join us in welcoming one of Evansville's finest artists back to his hometown.

2011 Annual meeting of The Theodore Robinson Society

August 21, 2011

7 p.m.

Creekside Place,
102 Maple Street
Evansville, Wisconsin

The Theodore Robinson Society

Our Mission: to educate and create interest in the work of Theodore Robinson, American impressionist artist, and encourage awareness of local and area artists.

Begin or Renew your membership:

*Make checks payable to Theodore Robinson Society
Mail to: 120 Liberty Lane, Evansville, Wisconsin*

Lifetime & Corporate: $100

Family: $20

Individual: $15

Student: $5

Name:

Address:

City

State

Zip

E-mail:

Phone: