SAFETY INFORMATION:

Yes    No    Comments

Is there any medical or other serious information staff needs to know about your student? Parents are encouraged to leave supplies needed for the student with staff such as EPI pens or special food.			What?
A snack is provided each night for students. Your child's safety and personal issues are important to the EYC staff. Does your student have any food or environmental allergies?			What?
Pictures are taken of EYC activities. Student names are never identified in the use of these pictures. Do we have permission to use pictures with your student?
The EYC walks to a couple of local places for activities. Does your child have permission to go on these field trips?			(example: Lake Leota Park or Blue Devil Bowl)
Will you give permission for the EYC director to discuss student issues with the school, if needed?
Has your student been identified with any special needs?			What?

PARENT AGREEMENT

I agree to volunteer at least one hour to the youth center. Examples for volunteering: fundraising events, field trips, Halloween party, etc. A snacks is provided every day and every event so any donation is appreciated.

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Please note that we enforce our rules vigorously and have high expectations of our youth:

- Use appropriate language. All media selections need to be appropriate as well.
- Respect the rights, feelings, ideas, abilities, bodies, and property of others, including adult staff.
- Respect the property of the Evansville Youth Center and its neighboring properties.
- Cleaning up after yourself is expected.
